

360 WEST

360WESTMAGAZINE.COM 10TH ANNIVERSARY

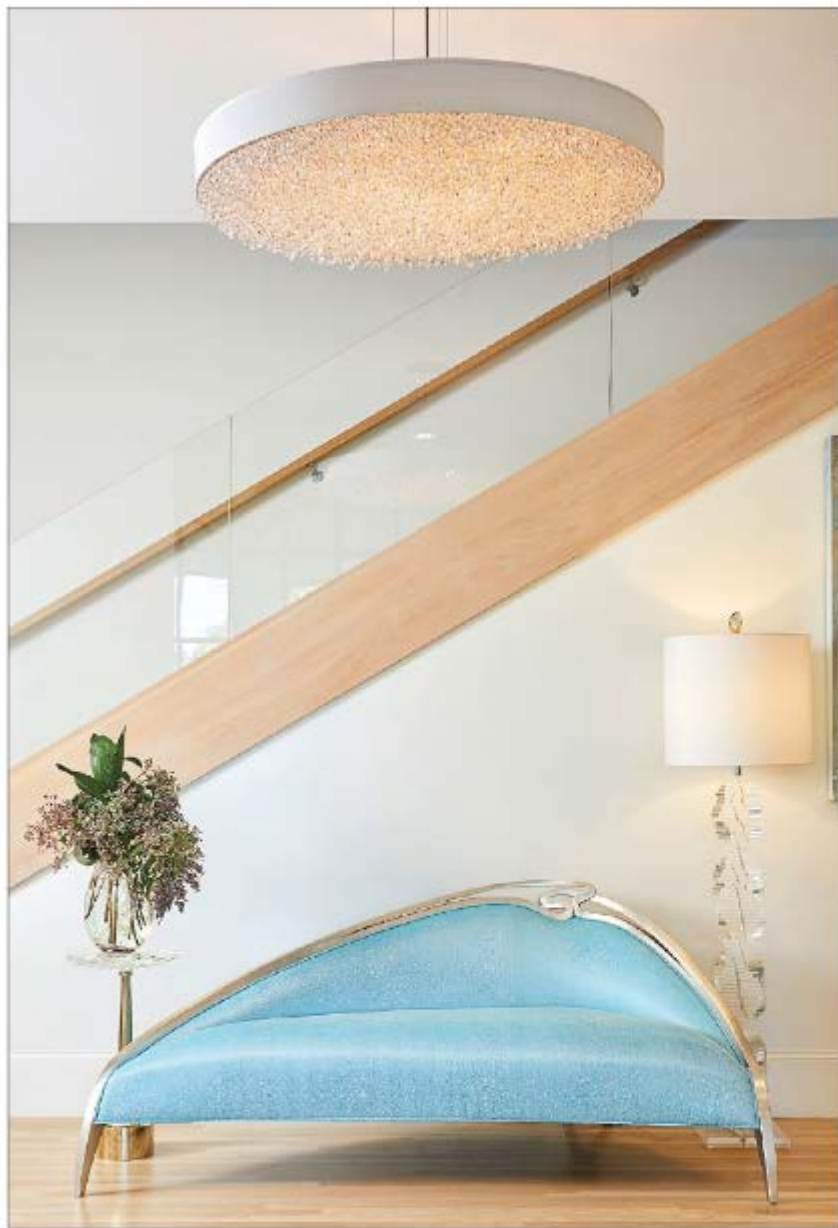

Fresh Start

A HOME MAKEOVER INSIDE AND OUT
RESULTS IN A CHIC NEST FOR A
FORMER CONDO-LIVING COUPLE

INSIDE COWBOY STYLE COMES EASY TO SOME
TEXAS SPA
DESTINATIONS
FOOD PROS FIND THEIR BALANCE
EQUINE ELEGANCE
IN BRONZE

$4.95 • JANUARY 2020

A Christopher Guy chaise holds court in the foyer, flanked by a '70s floor lamp with stacked Lucite blocks from Park + Eighth and a Cascade Signature accent table from Pottery Barn. The Swarovski chandelier is from Ferguson.

Tiffany loves pink. Inset: Martin's vivid arrangements, along with an embellished Laura Lee Clark side table, velvet pillow from Yves Delorme and rug from Truett add warmth to these vignettes.

Fresh Start

yet it still feels cozy when it's just the two of them (along with their little dog, LaLa).

"During football season and holidays, the house is full," says Tiffany. A former schoolteacher, she switched careers after attending culinary school and was hired by Southern Living magazine as a food and entertaining director. She also works for the Austin-based Texas Beef Council and has written three cookbooks. Having transitioned into a social media influencer, she is launching a podcast this month called "My So-Called Fabulous." Follow her on Instagram @tiffanycblackmon.

The home, with refreshed interiors by Flowers, not only fits into their lifestyle but also is the perfect backdrop for photo shoots. "There were a lot of wonderful details, which we kept. Flowers has done a lot of work for the Blackmon family, and she helped bring the rest up to date with everything