

California Dreamin.

West Coast transplants lighten up a 1940s Birmingham Colonial.

By

Khristi S. Zimmeth

“A lighter, more relaxed style” is what Dave and Jennifer Jennings had in mind when they contacted interior designer Margaret Skinner, of Margeaux Interiors, about renovating their four-bedroom, five-bath Birmingham Colonial, built in 1940. Originally from California, the couple dreamed of a brighter and more easygoing style in the 3,400-square-foot home they share with their three children.

The living room is the perfect spot for a bar cart. – Photography by Beth Singer