PANDEMIC OR NOT, THE HOME OFFICE IS HERE TO STAY, AND THIS ROUNDUP OF ESSENTIALS AND EXTRAS IS ANYTHING BUT BUSINESS CASUAL

TEXT LUIS R. RIGUAL

Marked by its pearlescent finish and antiqued mirror drawers, the Sincerely Yours desk pairs well with the chenille Roll With It chair. The two pieces by CARACOLE seem more apropos for writing love letters than paying bills—and that's the whole point. caracole.com

ABOVE: Moroccan details on the shade of the Amur desk lamp by 54 KIBO contrast its modern base. 54kibo.com

ABOVE: Made of properly dried solid wood, the Cubist bookcase by NOIR FURNITURE is the most exciting thing to happen to home offices since Zoom. noirfurniture.com

LEFT: A bent-wood back of toasted ash cradles sand-colored upholstered seating atop an adjustable steel base in the Burbank chair by FRANCE & SON, an ideal piece for any modern office. franceandson.com

LEFT: L'OBJET's snake bookends are meticulously crafted in marble and platinum, or 24K gold-plated metal. Tempted? l-objet.com
