BY MEG FOX

- 1 | From Global Views, the X Back Chair in Erwin Fog is a classic beauty that would look elegant and gracious in any living area or home office. $1,999. GlobalViews.com.
- 2 | Channeling old Hollywood glam with a Cuban-inspired architectural look, the Alexandra Bench from Maggie Cruz Home features clean lines in a coral lacquered finish with cutouts that reveal a cane bodice. A pale blue seat cushion and matching bolster pillows complete the chic and feminine piece. Other finishes available. For pricing and purchase, MaggieCruzDesign.com.
- 3 | A true standout, the George Sofa from Arteriors could never be backed against a wall. The steel details on the charcoal wood frame are reminiscent of extending tree branches. Covered in "Thistle Suiting," a softer hue that will let the intricate detailing shine. $8,900. ArteriorsHome.com.

- 4 | The Terrace Sofa from Hancock & Moore is the centerpiece in any room with its dramatic white leather upholstery draped around a black wood finish frame. Nail heads glam up the side and back panels. $20,500. Other upholstery options available. Brielle Furniture in Sea Girt or Zaksons in Brick.
- 5 | Swathed in a crushed silver velvet called "Dynamic Pewter," the Chatterly tete-a-tete from Jessica Charles evokes retro vibes with a rounded profile and channel-tufted interior. $3,989. White House Luxe in Fairfield.
- 6 | A hand-carved lattice frame — finished in a shimmery burnished silverleaf — is the defining feature of Caracole's Bee's Knees chair. A coordinating sofa is available. For retail sources and pricing, Caracole.com.
- 7 | Two Armory Square Chaises — designed by Thom Filicia for Vanguard — float in pairs to enhance any room setting. $4,203 each. Barrington accent chair, $2,490. SedgwickandBrattle.com or vanguard.com.
