THE PIECE: Put on a Pedestal

THE DESIGNER: Caracole

FIND IT: caracole.com

THE INSPIRATION: With a highly curated portfolio of high-style furniture, Caracole continues to wow the furniture market with timeless designs, brilliantly highlighted à la Put on a Pedestal. Inspired by a faceted bracelet, the accent table reads as a symbol of true luxury, resplendent and modern all at once. With its silky gold bullion finish, the piece, dare we say, shines bright like a diamond.

Caracole's dazzling accent table... Reminds me of a cut-jewel ring. Those sharp angular cuts and that grandiose yet practical shape catch your eye the way a fine piece of jewelry might. Composition: I am all about contrast when designing a space, and the pairing of the industrial environment with an as-polished-as-they-come piece feels luxurious, personal and even a little edgy. Finishes are the key... To a really gorgeous design. Oftentimes, gold and brass, albeit classics, just aren't polished enough for me, but a gold bullion finish brings an incomparable sheen—it's practically a gold mirror finish, which I find sexy and dramatic. Creatively speaking: Much of my work is grounded in traditional lines and architecture, so I'm always on the hunt for pieces that provide that necessary edge. The shape and allure of Caracole's design fits the bill in that it's fresh with just the right amount of flair.
