Standing as one of the most influential countries in the world, all eyes and ears are on the United States - its state-of-the-art technology, haute couture, Hollywood celebrities and more. It is unquestionable that American's culture and style is illustrated even in furniture designs.

A brand created with an aspiration of bringing quality American furniture into local homes, Felione Fine Furnishing Gallery is established in 1999. Driven by passion, the American brand offers a vast selection of American-made sofa, dining and bedroom collection. In addition, Felione also carries several prominent brands such as Ashley furniture - the current number one selling brand in North America for home furniture; Berhardt - a leading specialist having a reputation for fine craftsmanship and creative designs; and not forgetting LamLee lighting and home accessories - known for its inventive finish treatment of all sorts.

Resounding to the classic American style, Felione Fine Furnishing designs marry the classic contemporary, producing individual pieces of finest quality. Each piece made from wood, leather or upholstery undergoes stringent treatment to ensure that it meets the highest standard. Refined into sleek and functional pieces, Felione furniture guarantees that all-American look desire for your home. ♡
