HUES AND YOU

Understanding color theory
& the science behind it

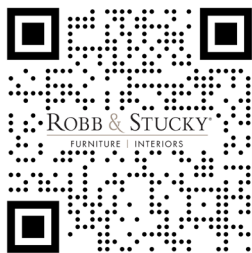

Wednesday, February 28th,
11:00am - 12:00pm
R&S Fort Myers Showroom

Join us for a fun & informative design workshop at our Fort Myers Showroom! R&S Interior Designer John Marieh, along with Eric Franklin and Cierra Flowers of Sherwin Williams, will give a special presentation on the effects of colors on our moods and minds, the history behind the science of color theory, and how it's used by interior designers and well-known brands. If you would like some pointers on selecting a paint color for your space, please bring in some photos for design advice following the presentation! Workshop starts promptly at 11, so come early and enjoy some light refreshments with us.
