Robb & Stucky Renovates 1300 Ponce De Leon

FORT MYERS, Fla. (August 1, 2017) – Robb & Stucky, the premier destination for luxury design and home furnishings, has announced that its interior designer, Maria Elena Holguin has completed the renovation of two models at 1300 Ponce De Leon in the heart of Coral Gables, Florida. The building is owned by CCP Ponce LLC and was listed on the market by ONE Sotheby's International Realty.

The two models were designed to enhance their own unique assets. Model #606 is a 2 bedroom, 2 ½ bath at approximately 950 sq.ft. with gorgeous views of Miami and downtown Miami in the distance. “I decided to design that apartment more Transitional because of the style of the building,” Maria Elena said. “The apartment has an open floor-plan with a predominantly male master bedroom and a very tone-on-tone guest bedroom. My inspiration for this space was the view, so I focused on using a grey, deep blue and ivory palette.”

Model #501 is a 1 bedroom, 1 ½ bath at approximately 800 sq.ft. “I wanted to draw the eye inward for this space by making the main focus the walls and furniture. The feel of this apartment is more feminine,” said Maria Elena. “I put a teal and golden brown grass cloth on the entire living/dining back wall and added a large wire sculpture for drama. I also added wallpaper, paints and large sculptural art to both bathrooms to give it an added wow factor. I wanted the color palette in this model to be cheery, so I chose light teal, gold, white and blue throughout.”

A variety of brands were used throughout both apartments, including Vanguard, Bernhardt, Maria Yee, Mitchell Gold + Bob Williams, LEE, Huppe, Global Views, Hooker Furniture and Pacific Designs Wallpaper.

Jack McAlister, Estate Agent with ONE Sotheby's, was very impressed with Maria's completed design. “Her attention to detail is always above and beyond our design expectations,” Jack said. “As a result, we are extremely pleased with her professionalism and design abilities. The first of the two models have been successfully put under contract due to Maria's ultimate design work. In the near future, she will be staging the formal areas within our project.”

Robb & Stucky has been awarded four more projects at this location.
