FORT MYERS, Fla. (Dec. 13, 2017) – Robb & Stucky has finished installing interior furnishings for a Landquest Group home located at 711 Bob White Lane in Naples, FL. This newly completed, one-of-a-kind, island inspired home is selling for $4,650,000 and features generously proportioned rooms including a 46' x 26' great room, 4 bedroom suites, spacious den, study, a double and single garage, all included in a 5,808 sq ft living space.

Located in the prestigious Pelican Bay neighborhood, this home includes beamed ceilings in the great room, oversized kitchen with 13' island, Wolf and Sub-Zero appliances, outdoor kitchen and wine room, pool, sun-shelf, and spa. The home features molding around the entire house and top of the line fixtures, hardware, and lighting. This home also includes membership to the private Pelican Bay Neighborhood beach club with full access to two restaurants and bars, tennis courts and private clubhouse with gym and social activities.

Robb & Stucky's Susan Bleda, acted as the Interior Designer on this project and furnished the interior of the home with a coastal style in mind, and a clean fresh look that incorporates the color story of living on the gulf. This includes natural elements like white beachy sand and driftwood as well as colors inspired by the ocean with gulf green, aqua, turquoise, and silvery blue. "It gives you the feeling that you are at the beach, but you haven't gotten there yet," Susan Bleda said. With its stunning attention to detail and impressive design, this property is the epitome of Florida lifestyle.

Max Minhas, Premiere Plus Realty Co. is the sales agent of this property: (239) 248-0251.
