FORT MYERS, Fla. (July 2017) – Robb & Stucky has announced that it will be opening its first-ever clearance center in Bonita Springs July 21st. Located in Bonita Bay Plaza across from the Promenade, the Clearance Spot will offer savings of up to 80% off MSRP on thousands of floor samples, discontinued items, overstocks and odds & ends. All home furnishings categories will be represented and inventory will be replenished weekly.

“We have $1.5 million worth of inventory that we’ve priced to move,” Eric Chien, Robb & Stucky’s Vice President and CFO said. “We’re excited to offer the community luxury brand furniture at an incredibly reduced price.
